Monroe Capital Corporation Announces $81.0 Million in New Originations for the Fourth Quarter of 2012

CHICAGO, Ill., January 11, 2013 – Monroe Capital Corporation (the “Company”) (NASDAQ: MRCC) today announced that it originated $81.0 million in new investment commitments during the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2012. Of these commitments, approximately $78.6 million were funded investments. These investments were made among 16 different portfolio companies and included one add-on investment with an existing borrower. Approximately 65.6% of the new funded investments were unitranche loans, 19.1% were senior secured investments, 14.9% were junior secured investments and 0.3% were equity securities. Overall, total funded investments in portfolio companies at par value increased by $66.7 million during the quarter ended December 31, 2012 after factoring in debt repayments. As of December 31, 2012, the Company’s portfolio consisted of approximately $134.3 million par value of funded investments among 28 different portfolio companies.

“December was a very active month for new originations, as many borrowers sought to complete transactions before the end of the year. Our pipeline remains robust and we expect continued strong deal flow in 2013,” commented Theodore L. Koenig, President and Chief Executive Officer of Monroe Capital Corporation.
